

80424: Product Configuration in Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012

Course Details

Course Outline

1. Module 1: Overview

- Product Configuration Terminology and Concepts
- Product Configuration Process

2. Module 2: Build a Product Configuration Model

- Product Configuration Setup
- Components
- Attribute Types
- Product Configuration Model
- Subcomponents
- Attributes
- Constraints
- User Requirements
- BOM Lines
- Route Operations
- Product Configuration APIs
- Lab : Add New Components
- Lab : Add a Product Configuration Model with an Existing Root Component
- Lab : Add Product Masters and Add Subcomponents to a Product Configuration Model
- Lab : Add Attributes to Components
- Lab : Add Constraints to Home Entertainment System
- Lab : Add User Requirements
- Lab : Add BOM Lines
- Lab : Add Route Operations

3. Module 3: Preparing a Product Configuration Model for Release

- Customizing the Configuration User Interface
- Validating and Testing a Product Configuration Model
- Building Configuration Templates
- Adding Configuration Translations
- Creating, Approving, and Activating Versions
- Lab : Customizing the Configuration user Interface
- Lab : Validating and Testing a Product Configuration Model
- Lab : Building a Configuration Template
- Lab : Add Configuration Translations
- Lab : Create, Approve, and Make a Version Available

4. Module 4: Product Configuration Access

- Product configuration on the Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 client.
- Product configuration on the Enterprise portal.
- Lab : Configure a Sales Order Line by using the Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 Client
- Lab : Configure a Sales Order Line on the Enterprise Portal